Romantic Clara

Sunday, September 8, 2019, 4:30 pm
Guest House in Bath*

In honor of her 200th birthday, we celebrate Clara Schumann and her contemporaries, with works by Robert Schumann, Johannes Brahms, and Carl Reinecke, as well as selections from many of Clara's piano and vocal compositions. CMSO founders George Pope and David Fisher are joined by Eric Charnofsky and Jane Berkner for an evening of beautiful music from the romantic period.

Informal outdoor picnic included.

CHAMBER MUSIC SOCIETY OF OHIO
518 Dorchester Rd.
Akron, Ohio 44320

THE CHAMBER MUSIC SOCIETY OF OHIO (CMSO) was founded in 1989 by flutist George Pope, pianist David Fisher, and soprano Valerie Thorson, to promote and preserve the tradition of presenting chamber music in an intimate setting; to further the composition and performance of new chamber works by regional composers; and to bring to audiences performances by talented local and regional musicians.

CMSO CONTRIBUTORS

When you contribute to CMSO, you're much more than a name on our donor list—you're a valued friend, helping to enrich the life of our musical community. Our series is unique—our contributors are, too. We appreciate your financial support. We're small by choice, and our series could never survive on ticket income alone. But we also value your active participation as audience members—you are the most important part of our series.

SPONSORS $1,500 OR MORE

Program acknowledgement, a short concert by CMSO in your home or business and an invitation to a special donors' house concert.
